

It is with the reluctant permission of my wife Mercy that this collection is made public. The first fifty poems were written over a weekend in Jan of 1996 for her birthday.

Pen pal & poet go hand in hand, in the Philippines they speak English & have family values like we did half a century ago, sounded great to me. One young lady's command of English was exceptional, very bright & cheerful. It really is possible to fall in love long distance.

A friend told me, he got married in the most beautiful place on earth "Panglao Island" in Bohol, I was unaware at the time it's where Mercy was born. Got to stay with her family for over a week. Glorious, a truly magical time! Had to ask Mercy's dad Jose for her hand in marriage. He was a huge man, tall with wide shoulders, a local hero, an ex-boxer. Papa made me sweat before he smiled & said yes. A great man, full of humor, he was much loved & respected. Mercy is a wonderful lady, she's put up with me for over 15 years, the love of my life. She has common sense I have talent. With my spontaneity & her logic we have managed well. We have three brilliant, talented, great looking kids.

It took years & thousands of dollars to go through the process of immigration, a compelling, persistent, problem laden mess generally. Many mistakes & lost files. Everyone desiring to immigrate & become a citizen of the United States should be similarly honored & made welcome coming to America, especially now.

God Bless & Enjoy

Festivities

Today's your birthday how can that be are you celebrating without me where's the party, the presents, the cake I wasn't invited, my heart may break

Guess I shouldn't feel too bad just as long as you are glad but next year don't forget include me in or I'll have a fit

Long to see you full of joy as you unwrap some silly toy hear your laughter see you smile birthday girl how you beguile

Only in spirit am I there next year in person without fail though I missed the festivities hope my silly poems please

Choice

God doesn't live on some cloud a bearded old man with a voice deep & loud no God is more than man can perceive only known by those who believe

Everywhere & everything much more than heavenly king creator of all that we see loves everyone you & me

God is love, God is alive wants his children to laugh & thrive you are his child, full of grace in each man we see his face

Free will is part of his plan sadly evil comes from man each of us must make a choice heaven or hell grieve or rejoice

<sup>3</sup> Round The World

Bohol is just a letter away world's getting smaller every day soon I come to take your hand a life together is planned

Where we live & what we do no mystery I'm with you togetherness no surprise fly round the world & gaze in your eyes

Almond eyes, so rich & so dark on your love I set my mark words on paper are yours today tomorrow we play

Laughter & hope I offer you honestly my heart is true Mercy you're my only desire sweet one you inspire

<sup>4</sup> Your Picture

Worn out your picture sweet one island lady smiles in the sun sand & ocean surround my girl what a pearl

At the beach in bear feet your arms folded such a treat glorious lady I declare I care

Can't help it you stole my heart your picture played no small part your letters mean so much my heart you touch

Lovely & young, yet wise in every way a glorious prize love you much precious one you're smart & fun

5 Paramount

Health is wealth, oh how true remember also it's up to you attitude is in control optimism the role

Wake up each morning & think of me in your minds eye health you'll see nourish your thoughts with love & joy remember your future with this good ol' boy

You're my woman, I want you strong want you here, to hear each song adoration I gladly confide soon you'll be my bride

How you feel is paramount more than anything to me you count love your smile your eyes & long black hair angel you take care

6 Little Strange

Dream of you all through the night laughter & passion, how you delight wake up & you're suddenly gone sometimes regret the dawn

Vivid dreams, I taste your kiss full of silliness innocent bliss run my fingers through your hair tell you how much I care

Holding you close touch your cheek waking up is kind of bleak surprised to be alone you're far away, can't even phone

All of this will have to change to love you in dreams, a little strange still I care so very much can't wait to touch

A Hug

When we first meet I want a hug don't shake my hand to come so far for formality, is not what's planned I'll want to sit, hold your hand & won't know what to say forever precious one I've waited for this day

Finding you has been, my lifelong goal you've become a part of me, deep in my soul love you more than logic or reason can explain Mercy it's your fault if I don't act quite sane

Better crazy than cold, lacking passion & love such feelings divine & from above do you get excited when you think of me delight in dreaming of what will be

It isn't silly to hope for the best island lady, you're my quest don't need to kiss or hold you close long as you don't mind the verbose

Versy

Yea I know I'm versy only for Mercy constantly write day & night

Look out baby when you're near that's the time for you to fear won't be able to get enough no bluff

Kiss you till your lips are soar get tired of hearing how I adore you'll beg me to quit have a fit

All I have today is pen tease you unlike other men don't mind playing the fool forget cool

9 True Love you much long to touch & kiss bliss

Make you blush pleasant rush it's fate great

Yes you're mine by design for life wife

Little girls & boys life's greatest joys with you
true

10 Surprisingly Real What a doll, can't help but fall in love with you glorious black hair, a lady fair beauty given to few

Wonderful smile, how you beguile you make me weak in the knees my heart you stole, you're in control pray you mean to please

I could get hurt or loose my shirt begging you to be nice guess it's too late, tempted fate end up paying the price

Whatever you do, always be true why on earth cause pain what you make me feel, is surprisingly real honor & love you'll gain

Birthday girl you're on my mind send you love my precious find can't be there for twenty three so far away across the sea

Soon you'll know I adore I'll be there for twenty four there's no reason to sit & pout or be consumed with doubt

Next year we'll party, go out & dance don't mean maybe won't leave things to chance love you & mean to please next year in person I'll tease

Sweet one by then you'll be my wife be an American living the life promise to personally to make you a cake bet you didn't know I could bake

I Lied

I never consider telling lies does this come as a surprise tease & even jest but never cheat a test

Self respect is all we've got sweet one I've got a lot pride & honor are my badge perhaps it's because I'm a Sag

Wouldn't cheat if I could more important to feel good there's nothing worth stealing I've found my logic is sound

Only need what I have inside more than possessions I need pride Mercy I must confide can't remember the last time I lied

I'm real not just pretense that I feel even illusions infatuate enchantment like you is great

What can I do what can I say emotions are more than play believe you're all you claim so I take aim

Looking for the very best you're an adventure a sacred quest like knights of old seeking the grail seek a woman whose love will not fail

Talent is rare, people seek wealth when it's too late, think about health I look for someone whose real & alive soul mate, together we'll thrive

The Moon

The moon is just a sliver tonight a silver crescent as I write you see it in the morning sky for me it's ready to say goodbye

Wonder if you're looking up right now thinking about taking a vow contemplating a future with me look at the moon what do you see

Do you see romance love & desire does my poetry really inspire glad for friendship & love what do you see when you look above

Do you have an idealistic heart are you delighted with music & art will you be content with your praise even the moon changes phase

Tease You

Love your eyes, your smile, your figure's divine full of delight for you are mine enchanting lady my heart is yours pray to heaven our love endure

Want you forever or not at all you're a living doll you've touched my soul when hurting you made me whole

Words of compassion words of truth wisdom from forgotten youth when my spirit was confused & sad you touched me deeply & made me glad

So I tell you now sweet friend my love for you is not pretend love you for all time & tease you with more than rhyme

A Date

Been a long time since I've had a date deliberate can't blame fate same old thing will not do rather correspond with you

Had enough of faithless liars around the world look who inspires a simple girl from Bohol loving you my number one goal

Write & tease, try not to offend with any silliness that is penned pray you enjoy all you read also pray I plant a seed

Care a great deal for you my friend never want these feelings to end alone with my pen instead of dating like other men

Feeling Rough

Quantity & quality the old story goes opposites everyone knows they're the same common knowledge for shame

I write constantly & improve my style words flow more easily after a while quantity breeds quality I've found I'm on solid ground

Write every day of my life whether I'm happy or filled with strife pick up my pen inspired or not write a lot

Funny, some of my favorite stuff is composed when things are rough best advice should you choose to create habit makes you great

Wear

Imagine sweet one if you were here I'd write books because you're near tease you silly in many ways from my pen constant praise

Then again maybe not be busy cause you're so hot spend my time in loving arms that idea alarms

Romance first forget the verse passion rules the universe suspect you'll wear me out I won't pout

 it's easy sweet thing know why it's you, no lie*

One or two sometimes three but half a book in the mirror you should look a plan, began, we can, start clan one child, so mild, one wild, you smiled don't stress, success, will bless, say yes*

No frown, don't clown, your town, white gown I bring, gold ring, & sing, sweet thing you're great, my mate, just wait, trust fate have fun, sweet one, it's done, you won, wow

A Game

Love is a game & so much more you can get hurt when you adore or have success the heavens bless

Use your heart & also your mind save your anger, always be kind get mad at the fools in the world outside be gentle with your bride

What we offer is what we get remember this & never forget we get what we deserve receive & serve

When things seem to be going bad by yourself you've been had joy comes from within try a grin

Faithful Children

Things aren't always what they seem reality is no dream we control destiny God made us free

Examine each & every desire choose carefully things that inspire it's much too easy to plant bad seed look at the world, so filled with greed

Money & power are not success fame & fortune never bless faith & love will make you grin but temporary the pleasure of sin

*Profound the joy of doing right the blessings of God, true delight innocence its own reward

I feel complete, & you're sweet candy kisses for me, two not three won't complain, crazy not insane*

One And Only

Like being your one & only beats the heck out of sad & lonely you're my goal

No greater quest not even the grail at my side forever sweet one satisfaction & lot's of fun

The Goal

Hear your despair, you know I care don't be depressed, you're blessed sweet one you're adored, on you love is poured what more can I say, give me another day

Know what you feel, but honey we're real & worth the wait, loves great so just hold on, soon you're gone far away from Bohol, that's the goal

Plan

Know I shock as I tease, only mean to please mischievous my pen, again & again don't be quick to judge, honor does not budge speak only truth, never uncouth

Alright I shouldn't say tit, but would you rather I quit speak what I feel like a man, honest this isn't a plan on this paper you will find, what ever comes to mind when I'm too bold don't cry, sigh

Heart With Art

Love the way you part your hair sort of crooked with a lot of flair caressing your shoulder shimmering black ebony tresses down your back

Almond eyes & bronze colored skin an absolutely adorable grin shapely & round but petite bet your lips are soft & sweet

Can't smell your hair or feel your cheek a passionate embrace in vain I seek summer breezes carry me away island paradise I come to play

Soon I'll take you in my arms Mercy me discover your charms check out your hair & that cute crooked part for now touch your heart with art

New Home

Counting the days each hour each minute life's on hold I long to begin it can't wait till you arrive to feel alive

Half empty & half full a foreign land seems to pull my thoughts are of beautiful Bohol & a girl that makes me whole

One of the natives stole my heart presumptuous little tart got on the plane & left ignorant of the theft

This time you get on the plane & fly kiss your Mom & Dad goodbye America is your new home your turn to roam

Bribe

Think of you in the still of the night passions arrival pure delight whiff of incense hair full & long the only thing missing of course is song

Not complaining not one little bit the sound of the ocean as I caress each tit the joy in my heart, hard to describe never any diatribe

If offered anything to replace you I'd laugh, you know it's true you're on the other side of the kiss one & only I will not miss

Please forgive me for being bold partly culture I've been told what are you gonna do next time we're alone tell Pet we won't need a chaperon

Play

Is this as far as we'll get on paper, amusing, full of wit rhyme obscure as reality suits me

*Should I always mean what I say or say what I mean when it's play & play is what we do
true*

Elegant pictures rhyme & sing knights in armor a queen & her king a fairy princess & unicorn tales written before you were born

I see a girl, sails & sea flowing black hair beckoning me much easier to write I'll hate the flight

Concession

Wonder what you think of me, how you feel what are you searching for, what's real want to leave your land, find a better life do you really want to, be my wife

Am I a concession, the price you pay will you honor me every day eccentric artist to love & leave or touch your heart, in magic believe

Bless me with children to love & adore beside me always rich or poor or discard me like yesterdays trash once American off you'll dash

Easy to pretend to give your heart fool the man devoted to art life is excitement, beauty & fun doubt you'll be tempted to run

Average Affair

Moved deeply inside my soul assumed a unique role inspiration, hope & desire you I require

Perfect in every way full of laughter through the day beloved one who makes me write you're also happy in the night

Silent lover sensual & warm your tenderness isn't the norm affectionate one your love is felt adoration makes my heart melt

Stunned, surprised, inviting lips in the darkness my heart skips love like yours is precious & rare not the average affair

Thief

Off to the south china sea full of adventure & opportunity my booty, not silver or gold my treasure can't be bought or sold

To gain my fortune I must steal you understand how I must feel an honest man but there's no other way for atonement I will pray

Yes soon I'll be seeing a priest drinking wine enjoying a feast forgiven for stealing your heart but not for being so long apart

Precious this glorious prize nothing as lovely as your eyes please forgive this uncommon thief steal your heart but cause no grief

Punch

Proud of you pleased as punch honest honey love you a bunch happy go lucky full of pep cute little bounce in your step

You become sultry passion is set free full of love & desire you inspire

It's me you honor sweet one innocent fun fell in love with the child inside asked you to be my bride

We'll be happy I won't match your pace but I will keep that smile upon your face enchanting one, my prize found the universe in your eyes

A Bunch

My love for you is growing each day love you more when wrinkled & gray dear to me when old more precious by far than silver or gold

Today love you with all my heart & growing like my wordy art every day there's more & already I adore

Still greater love will I have for you last time I looked it suddenly grew it's growing now deep inside adoration my lovely bride

Constantly add more, the rest of my life never stop my beautiful wife when old still love you a bunch just a hunch

Doubt

In darkest moments I wonder do you doubt get angry, think what's this about are nice young men harder to resist been tempted to flirt & be kissed

You go where you wish strange cities alone only with me need a chaperon a full grown woman independent & free need not question your integrity

Couldn't blame you times at fault the wound is open here comes the salt do you think this is all just a game I intend to change your name

From me you'll never hear an excuse leave you stranded, total abuse stupid things I feel you've never doubted that my love is real

Thieves

The best thieves in Manila don't work at the post politicians are taking the most tariff & taxes steal from the poor then they vote to take more

Kind of feel sorry for the ignorant slob who opened your letter risking his job some day he'll probably end up in jail the economy makes people rifle the mail

If your representatives got off your back your wonderful people wouldn't be strangled by lack if the leaders who make weak men steal in abject poverty, choose morals or a meal

Don't blame the poor for choosing wrong evil is found flourishing with the powerful & strong not making excuses all theft is bad but enslaving your nation is mad

Rulers are taxing your country to death if they could they'd put tariffs on your breath God knows it's serious your people are broke because your leaders have made governing a joke

Hinagdanan

This is crazy, the past isn't hazy clear as a bell, Hinagdanan was swell a cave so dark, three shafts of light leave their mark water crystal clear, last year

Seems like yesterday, skinny dipping sweet play exuberant alive, no dive glories meant to behold, more precious than gold vivid the view, you

Fate

More than fate, soul mate God's will, the way you thrill not just your touch, thrills much many charms alarm

Your joyous heart, is art really fine, design beautiful one, so fun trust the Lord, you're adored opportunity & loves bereft*

Coincidence is a lie who most hated to say goodbye someone considers you his own had the nerve to use the phone

*No one had your number but dad

Eeee

Mercy me Mercy like what I see face figure & personality a decree you're no longer free I'll flee across the sea & with you be For eternity guarantee harmony why disagree with repartee a touch of irony & esprit no debris or third degree hyperbole no catastrophe but a symphony in simile of glee agree

Broke

Know you'll be here as soon as you can know I'm your only man but honey it seems the sooner it gets the slower time moves, loosing my wits

Any day you'll walk through that door alone together our spirits will soar each day drags by slower than the last but no living in the past

You'd be here if you could the days don't go by for you as they should a great burden this being apart time must take forever on a broken heart

It ain't broke so's I can't fix it tho & once we're together inside love will grow our future beloved is just begun just watch time flies when you're having fun

Alternative

What's it all about full of questions not doubt life's great, existence sweet some people even think we repeat

Others believe in life after death still they treasure every breath what's the hurry Heaven can wait for the final appointment no one is late

It's not that I don't believe in God the act of creation I applaud but each day goes by so fast life is wonderful I want it to last

I'm not complaining not one little bit what we give is what we get older is wiser dig in & live beats the heck out of the alternative

Soul

Many things in life are a game power money, especially fame give me someone who has a heart not someone acting a part

Without compassion & tenderness powerful people can not bless money can't get you to heaven bread can't rise without leaven

We need soul to be worth a damn a famous actor is only a ham unless he knows how to give sharing is how we live

Don't be impressed or envy the rich his children hate him, his wife's a bitch his own family wants him to die inherit the money no reason to cry

Love is the answer I've said it before many rich men are actually poor many poor are wealthy it's true that's why I marry you

Thrashed

Wait till I get my hands on you you can run but not hide it's true you're mine & there's gonna be hell to pay we play

Once I've got you on the court will you be as good a sport & loose with dignity to me

Gonna eat you for lunch won't foul you or toss a punch beat you fair & square with care

Soundly thrashed will you complain excuses a pain take it like a man - not a lot

Slave

Soft jazz playing people laugh & talk couldn't stay home went for a walk Mercy on my mind, feeling sad you usually make me glad

Only you enter my thoughts tonight with you alone I write no glib conversation no smiles no fun

Subdued by loneliness on a rainy night sans passion, ecstasy no delight far removed from pleasure or pain insolent sanity drives me insane

I'm your slave enslaved by this mood silently sitting content to brood I could be gay but poets don't lie pretense is preposterous why even try

If I'm noticed I notice not a quiet corner table is my spot sipping coffee just a touch sad alone but with you, isn't so bad

Melancholy & more far from the one I adore content to examine feelings inside one difficult day closer to my bride

Best Year

This has been the best year of my life because of you sweet Island wife you bring me joy & much more can't help but adore

Not an easy man to please sometimes offended when you tease stuffy & ugly in a foul mood you silently brood

Don't take me too serious or be afraid together we have it made when we're apart there's an empty space in my heart

Never leave you or let you go really need you & want you to know our future gets brighter each day showing each other the way

Faith Hope &

Thoughts of you fill me with pride make me feel warm & wanted inside your love means everything to me want you beside me for all to see

You're quite a catch a wonderful match salt & pepper, coffee & cream our love, is a dream

Correspondence began a new life I was lonely & wanted a wife someone to appreciate poetic ways someone to brighten up my days

Your letters fill me with delight laughter & romance as you write together for only a week without faith hope & Mercy life would be bleak

Missing

Today's your birthday beautiful one sincerely hope you're having fun your celebration I had to miss can't give you a kiss

All evening I waited by the phone thinking of you not feeling alone almost see your smiling face missing your birthday, a disgrace

Next year together we'll be it's my promise a guarantee even bake you a cake missing another I can't take

You're more than special Mercy mine in every way you're divine think of next year I'll be near

Sublime

When you call I rejoice thrill at the sound of your voice singing & sweet a coloratura treat

Like a bird greeting the day a happy sound, syllables play clear as a bell unusual unique colorful accent but no beak

Chirping from around the world into the fast lane you are hurled pack your bags our wish comes true one of us is long overdue

Don't delay not one hour do it now my passionate flower don't tempt the powers that be as soon as you're able come to me

Doubt the situation will worsen but need to hear from you in person honey I love you you're sublime all things have their season now's our time

For Real

Wish I knew you for real not just pretense all I feel even illusion can infatuate enchantment is great

*What can I do what can I say
so I take aim*

an adventure a sacred quest like knights of old seeking the grail questing one whose love will not fail*

when it's too late think about health
a soul mate together we'll thrive*

It Matters

Yes you're lovely & it matters much long for desire long for your touch beautiful maiden passion confide only because I want you as bride

May I be worthy of your longing & dreams bring forth bubbling laughter with silly schemes allow you to be the best that you can no matter the difficulty of your plan

Touch the skies with your bold bright thought whatever you want can be built or bought but talent comes from within your heart the greatest treasure is surely art

I compliment beauty & God the wonders of nature I applaud but in heaven or earth nothing I see thrills my soul like Mercy

Pure White

You deserve to wear pure white this is your moment of delight I'm filled with pride & love you much precious to me your innocent touch

At the alter exchange our vows before indulging what love allows promise to honor & obey then play

Glorious in your shimmering gown get ready for more than a night on the town weeks of loving & delight get ready to take flight

Honeymoon on the coast see the sights make a toast champagne for two who've wed then bed

No Cure

You are my treasure delicate & pure our love will endure I'm sure there's no cure for your allure

Festivals

Tagbilaran a friendly place people smile, the tricycles race a quiet park in the middle of town a place lovers go to sit down

Celebration is part of your life you have festivals & forget about strife laughter & joy now follow me round an islands treasure is found

Family & honor doing what's right caring for others is your delight attitude never gets in your way once you know the rules you're ready to play

Tar

What direction shall we travel my lord your wish my command for you are adored by a princess of great Ocat the king in her honor I sing Guarded her since a mere child running, laughing, exciting & wild full of spirit full of charm Pet's honor & duty to keep her from harm So my good friend who's traveled far when the boys offend I dip them in tar the princess tells me you're really quite nice but remember your manners or pay the price

Fussed

You have my trust & lust wonderful bust upper crust color a soft rust nipples dark as dust with a gust they just get so fussed

Spark

You generates quite a spark make things light up in the dark colorful lady give me a charge your reserves are large

Love's the electricity you make & you're mine for heavens sake I'll take all the power you've got freely given & never bought

No one explains love, or the electric light either it's dark, or it's bright it's magnetically controlled & more precious than gold

What you offer is beyond price I savor an exotic rare spice yes honey you're quite a shock the meter spins when we talk

April & May

You touch my soul make me feel whole thrill me senseless deep down inside my blushing bride you bless

Except for the phone totally alone oh yes I check the mail promise you this in May we kiss a June bride without fail Wanted you here sometime last year that was the plan immigration said no we move real slow but we're doing the best that we can

We had a date I know it's late but don't despair you I adore even more waiting this long isn't fair

Fair or not your tickets bought you'll be here soon April & May we get to play be a Missus in June

Amazed

You know I'm amazed, dazed that such beauty, loves me exotic & rare, so fair oriental but dark, wears my mark

A band of gold, for one who's bold & soft, she sends my spirits aloft & the air, blows long black hair love you, true

Sing

You inspire, desire to you I belong, each song & line, of mine each note, I wrote

For you, it's true sweet thing, I sing rejoice, my voice endures, it's yours

No Pain No Gain

Love's in your eyes, sighs, thighs, goodbyes love's in your kiss, miss, bliss, all this & more, for poor, you swore or rich, hitch, my pitch, please don't bitch

Never complain, no strain, no pain, no gain pleasure, sure, pure, endure for what ails you, true, new, adieu fly away, yea, play, today

Quest

You're my quest no jest or sophomoric test by you I'm blessed in white dressed emotions crest many a guest got the best for my nest

Required

You're presence is required, I'm tired of doing without, no doubt without you, true know what you're missing, kissing

That's just the start, sweet heart not the end, friend you'll like the whole show, you know bound to agree, with me

*Light of my life, good wife

& a sign, mine*

Love your touch, much full of pride, bride fate, it's great

Better Part

You're part of my life, the better part taken up residence right here in my heart heaven has blessed me, blessed me much with desperate longing miss your touch

Just holding your hand makes me feel whole being near you my immediate goal time for adventure & fun sweet one something wonderful is begun

We blend race & culture a wonderful mix heaven's playing unlikely tricks coming together from so far away deliberately planning for one special day

Soon Mercy mine very soon we'll be singing a different tune you'll be my bride to abide & guide

Make

I want to make, not shake, you up want to take, not break, you pup yes I adore, & more, sweet treat never boor, but score, repeat

You're the target, get set, my prize I'll win this bet, my pet, dark eyes reveal your soul, it's whole, complete enjoy the role, my goal, this feat

Have a dose, of close, with you get so verbose, it's gross, what's new talk laugh touch, much, & kiss in the clutch, you're such, pure bliss

Understand need, it's seed, you're soil a touch of greed, thought deed, & toil love's the game, not tame, you fill you came, change name, & thrill

Apple

Apple of my eye make me long & sigh experience your loving embrace in my dreams see your face

You're beautiful Mercy mine no not fair, but oh so fine you may play fair but your chocolate brown with jet black hair

Can you see inside my soul feel the acceptance we're one & whole but in our difference I delight & tease you often when I write

Nothing pleases more than your smile I'll be gone for just a while then it's time for some serious play an apple a day keeps the doctor away

Ring

Hay I get uptight, when you don't write, just like you at least you see, inside me, love's true nothing to hide, my feelings confide, unlike you sweet mystery, hope you see, I'm blue

You're my own, hope you phone, long to hear your voice bubble & laugh, in my behalf, I rejoice almost cry, then say goodbye, reluctantly hang up excited alive, happy to strive, you fill my cup Need you more, like never before, as wife then children pretty & wise, honest eyes, Mercy where've you been heaven above, fell in love, you know I care cute endowed, innocent proud, tight bod great hair

Island miss, how you kiss, soulful & deep best I've found, need you around, even there in my sleep time to fly, say goodbye, one more thing know I write, because you delight, wear my ring

Virtue

Ooh Honey, I like what you got yes you're silly a lot nervous is cute not strange it's normal when you expect a change

Hay I can't help but give you hell your replies are really swell suppose I should provide relief but you get so passionate when given grief

So I pour it on kind of thick you get excited really quick tell me you'll love faithful, forever love another never

That's all I really want so I taunt it's true virtue never an issue

Return

Soon you'll be on a plane talk about using your brain no farmer or fisherman's wife prepared yourself for a better life

Bitter the burden oppression will bring peasants the product of a greedy king in America there are jobs for good pay perhaps that too will change some day

Doesn't matter if you govern by decree if the poor fools believe they're free once you tax em more than ten percent they won't know where their freedom went

My anger is that you need to choose between poverty & nothing to loose I understand & am fully aware you give up much remember I care

Oh I know you love me, it's true & I choose to be with you humbly I tell you we both choose well but getting your visa has been hell

Immigrant come take my hand leave your Philippines just like we planned honey don't be surprised at all you learn & remember someday we'll return

Seed

I'll attend to you it's my joy want love I'm your boy totally available at night for play

When you wake up I'll be there pamper you as long as you're nice don't you go getting cold as ice

Need pampering too I confess relationships mutually bless rub my back desire my desire be happy that's all I require

You can't fake it, your joy will show aware of your feelings our love will grow support is all you really need I'm just here to plant the seed

Chocolate Kisses

Dreaming of chocolate kisses for Valentines Day chocolate kisses that don't go away no matter how many bites I take

Only two but since they don't melt when sucked on licked or even felt never need another sweet not with such an outstanding treat

Hope to come to the delicious point never fear I won't disappoint

*I'm gonna kiss every inch of your face your ears your nose not miss one place your glorious eyebrows especially your lips

Oh I'll linger there don't worry one bit pay special attention to your left & right tit kiss the inside of each tender thigh long wet kisses enjoy each sigh

Won't ignore your firm round behind bite tenderly be gentle & kind my tongue will explore, my lips will suck you'll experience bliss with any luck

Good fortune is coming your way delight in every inch I explore then have some more

Allure

Unsure

So pure, much allure, be sure paid the price, you're nice, toss rice my wife, in good times & strife, for life in joy, oh boy, sweet toy

Unusual

Let me stumble on places I've never been greet the exotic with a grin relish cuisine & culture that's new observe the women & sample the brew Colorful courtyards & markets that thrive excitement & commerce bustling alive words without meaning upon my ear enchanting music & good cheer

Yes I long for something new unusual places seen by few your home is just such a place an added attraction, your lovely face

Near

Riotousness is near today simple one no more delay undefiled by men you give innocence & with me live

Simple vows to love & obey cherish & honor every day a serious thing from one so pure your gift is precious we will endure

Through good & bad I will recall for me you saved the best of all lovely & virtuous the perfect wife delightfully faithful the rest of my life

*I accept you cute as you are

I'll keep a smile on your pretty face you're gonna like this place* but also be full of joy she'll expect, once you've trekked a sweet baby girl or boy*

Travel learn, then return with a child in your arms then she'll grin, where've you been sharing your precious charms once started this pen moves quick please forgive me I don't mean to offend but I hardly control what's penned*
